When I received it, I put in a brass ring to test it, and to my surprise it was nicely silver plated in five minutes I made $29.50 the first week, and $47.85 the second week, plating jewelry and tableware. At the end of the first month I had $197.45 clear profit. I now get all the knives, forks, spoons and jewelry one person can plate, without going from home. I will let my son have the Plater I now have at home, and I am going out to sell Platers. I sold three today, at $10.00 each, and did some plating besides. I sent $20.00 today for four more Platers. I bebelieve any enterprising person can make a grand success of this business.

DESPFRADO NED CHRISTIE SURROUNDED IN HIS FORT.

ATTACKED BY DEPUTY MARSHALS.

He Answers the Summons to Surrender With a Volley of Shots, Fatally Wounding One Officer and Disabling Auother-Waiting for Reinforcements-Dynamite Used but to No Purpose.

TAHLEQUAH, I. T., Oct 13. -An athis home in the Caney mountains, fifteen miles east of here.

The attacking party was composed of Deputy United States Marshals Milo Creekmore, David Rusk, Charles Copeland and D. C. Dye, with three a des.

The house was surrounded and the presence of the officers was unknown until the call for surrender was made. The only answer was a volley of bullets, one of which struck John Fields in the neck, inflicting a mortal wound, and another struck Joe Bowers, disabling him. When it was found that Christie would not surrender the officers then warned the women and children to come out of the house, which they did and were placed under arrest.

The marshals then set fire to the outbuilding in hopes that the flames would communicate to the house in which Christie was taking refuge, but this plan failed. Dynamite was then used, but the fuse failed to ignite.

Deputy Creekmore then hurried to this city and sent the following telegram to United States Marshal Yoes at Fort Smith: "Send deputies to Ned Christie's at once. We have him surrounded, but have not enough men. John Fields and Joe Bowers, of our party, are shot. Fields will die."

To which Marshal Yoes wired: "Have wired everywhere for deputies. You will have lots of help to-night. Hold the fort by all means and get them this time." Creekmore also summoned a lot of men, including the city marshal and high sheriff. Christie's house is a veritable fort, having been built specially as a place of defense. It is a two story log house, the upper part being provided with loopholes.

In the fall of 1887, while United States Marshal Dan Maples was in the city, he was shot down by an unknown person. Suspicion pointed to Christie, who, at the time, was a member of the 'Cabin gang," and a reward of $500 was offered by the government for his arrest. Two previous attempts have been made to affect his capture and both times the United States government failed and the reward was doubled.

Christie is supposed to have with him Bear Paw and Walk-About, who are both desperate murderers and fugitives from justice.
